A SONGWRITER'S SHOWCASE

FREE CONCERT - ALL ORIGINAL MUSIC - OPEN MIC & REFRESHMENTS

A PROGRAM OF LONG ISLAND'S ORIGINAL SINGER-SONGWRITERS OF ALL STYLES AND AGES

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 25th
2 – 4:30 PM

SUNDAY, JANUARY 27th
2 – 4:30 PM

LOIS MORTON is a uniquely interesting singer songwriter who is known for her humorous songs of social commentary on subjects such as 'clutter', 'cell phones' and 'diet'. Lois keeps you laughing while tugging at your heart strings. (website: www.loismorton.com)

VINCENT CRICI is an independent producer and studio musician in his own recording studio. He is known as a writer's writer among the singer songwriter community. His melody and harmony are standouts and his vocals are smooth and personal.

BILL GOLDSMITH is as prolific as he is inventive. He has published four full length CDs with more on the way. His music has a wonderful way of sounding both familiar and fresh. His lyrics and chord changes are often surprising and memorable.

KEN KRUMENACKER wrote his first song in 1956. He is a Seacliff resident and runs Song and Movement – a program for children. He has performed in various groups, and performs currently with Barbara Garriel.

ESTELLE HENRICH a songwriter who is inspired by events in her life or what she sees on the sides of trucks. She plays the autoharp and dulcimer.

WALT SARGENT has studied voice & opera for many years and published two CDs. He has written songs for the Gone Tribe, took 3rd place in the 2006 Dallas Songwriters Competition (pop/rock category) and co-wrote the Alma Mater for Dowling College.
