ISS PRESENTS

SUN, OCTOBER 28TH

Maria Elaina, has been writing songs since the age of 8. She has a style that hints of country, pop, and R&B/Soul influence. Known for her catchy hooks, beautiful melodies, & passionate vocals, this Plainview resident will both entertain & touch you.

Tim Peterson, does it all from incredible originals to some of the most interesting renditions of covers you have ever heard. Tim's amazing guitar styling's will intrigue all. He is truly one unique and talented musician that you won't want to miss.

Mike Wells, writes thoughtful, reflective lyrics and adds smooth melodies & flowing harmony. His music is easy on the ears, lyrics probing and personal, yet with a message for all. He writes of relationships, love, life, death, the future and the past.

SUN, NOVEMBER 25TH

Lois Morton, is a uniquely interesting, singer song writer, who is known for her humorous songs of social commentary on subjects such as clutter, cell phones & diets. Lois keeps you laughing while tugging at your heart strings.

Vincent Crici, is an independent producer and studio musician in his own recording studio. He is known as a writer's writer among the singer/songwriter community, his melody and harmony are standouts and his vocals are smooth and personal.

Bill Goldsmith, is as prolific as he is inventive. He's published four full-length CDs with more on the way and his songs, his music has a wonderful way of sounding both familiar and fresh. His lyrics and his chord changes are often surprising and memorable.
